TEAM PENNING

Yee haw! Each team of five will be on horseback. One team at a time, the goal is to work together. The task is to separate three steers from the herd and move them across an arena and into a 12'x12' pen. Every team gets three minutes to finish the task while one of our cowboys rides along for some added coaching. Everyone can do this including the city slickers that never thought they would try. Spectators are sidelined on the adjacent hay wagons, heckling the teams and usually enjoying a refreshing beverage.
